

The Charter School Principal

Nuanced Descriptions of Leadership

EDITED BY DANA L. BICKMORE AND MARYTZA A. GAWLIK

“Bickmore and Gawlik’s book is an important and timely addition to the field of charter school research. Full of interesting and in-depth studies, it is useful to researchers and practitioners alike who seek to understand the experiences of charter school leaders.” — Catherine DiMartino, Associate Professor, Department of Administration and Instructional Leadership, St. John's University School of Education

“Through in-depth case studies that each illuminate the unique challenges and opportunities for leaders in charter schools, this volume is the first to present not only a comprehensive assessment of what we know and don’t know about the charter school principal, but also, importantly, specific guidelines for practitioners. And after 25 years of charter school policies, these new insights are sorely needed.” — Huriya Jabbar, Assistant Professor, Educational Policy and Planning, Dept. of Educational Administration, The University of Texas at Austin\

This book provides a foundational understanding of the charter school principalship through the lens of culture, mission and vision. By drawing on the experts in the field of charter school research, this volume expands our understanding of the unique challenges facing the charter school principal as they engage in the core responsibilities of developing and sustaining charter schools. With this expanded knowledge practitioners and policy makers are positioned to ponder and engage in improved practice, while researcher can further expand the knowledge base surrounding the charter principal. Contributors to The Charter School Principal include Marisa Cannata, Zaia Thambre, Grant Thomas, Jeff Walls, Jisu Ryu, Jason Johnson, and Linsay DeMartino.
